Hon. Irshad Hussain,J.

Smt. Champa Devi has filed two writ petitions. One bearing no. 664/2002(S/B) and another bearing no. 655 of 2002 (S/B).

Writ petition bearing no. 664 of 2002(S/B) is filed by Sri Nandan Arya, Advocate, as a fresh petition today while writ petition no. 655 of 2002(S/B) was filed by Sri M.C Kandpal, Advocate, earlier. In both the writ petitions, the petitioner has made statement on oath that the said petition is her first writ petition. The petitioner has thus given false affidavit which is established from the averments made in para no. 1 of both the writ petitions. Though, it is a fit case to prosecute the petitioner for perjury, yet we, instead of prosecuting the petitioner for perjury impose cost on her for a sum of Rs. 20,000/-(Rupees Twenty Thousand only), which shall be deposited by the petitioner within ten days failing which, the petitioner shall be sent to jail for rigorous imprisonment of two months. With this the petition is dismissed.
